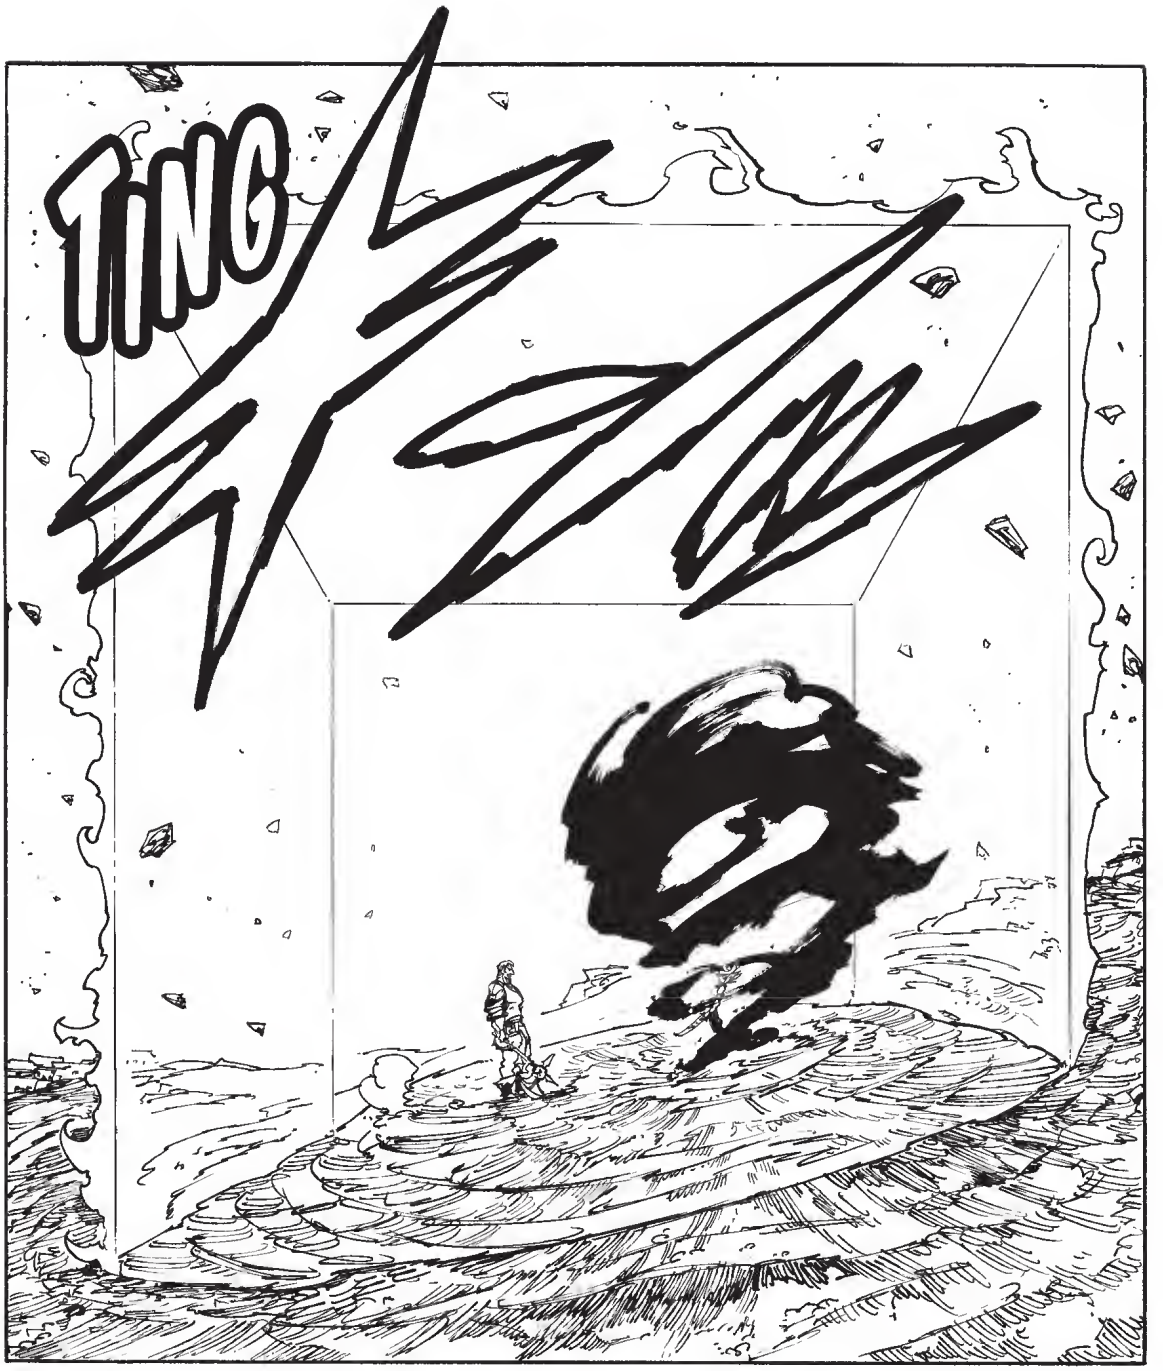
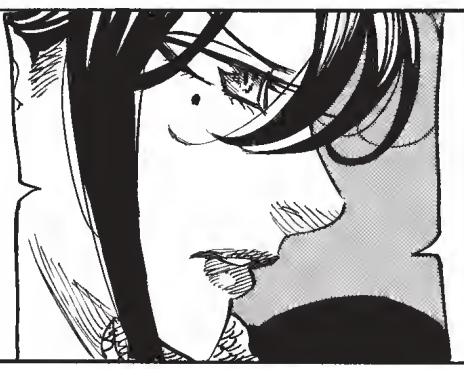
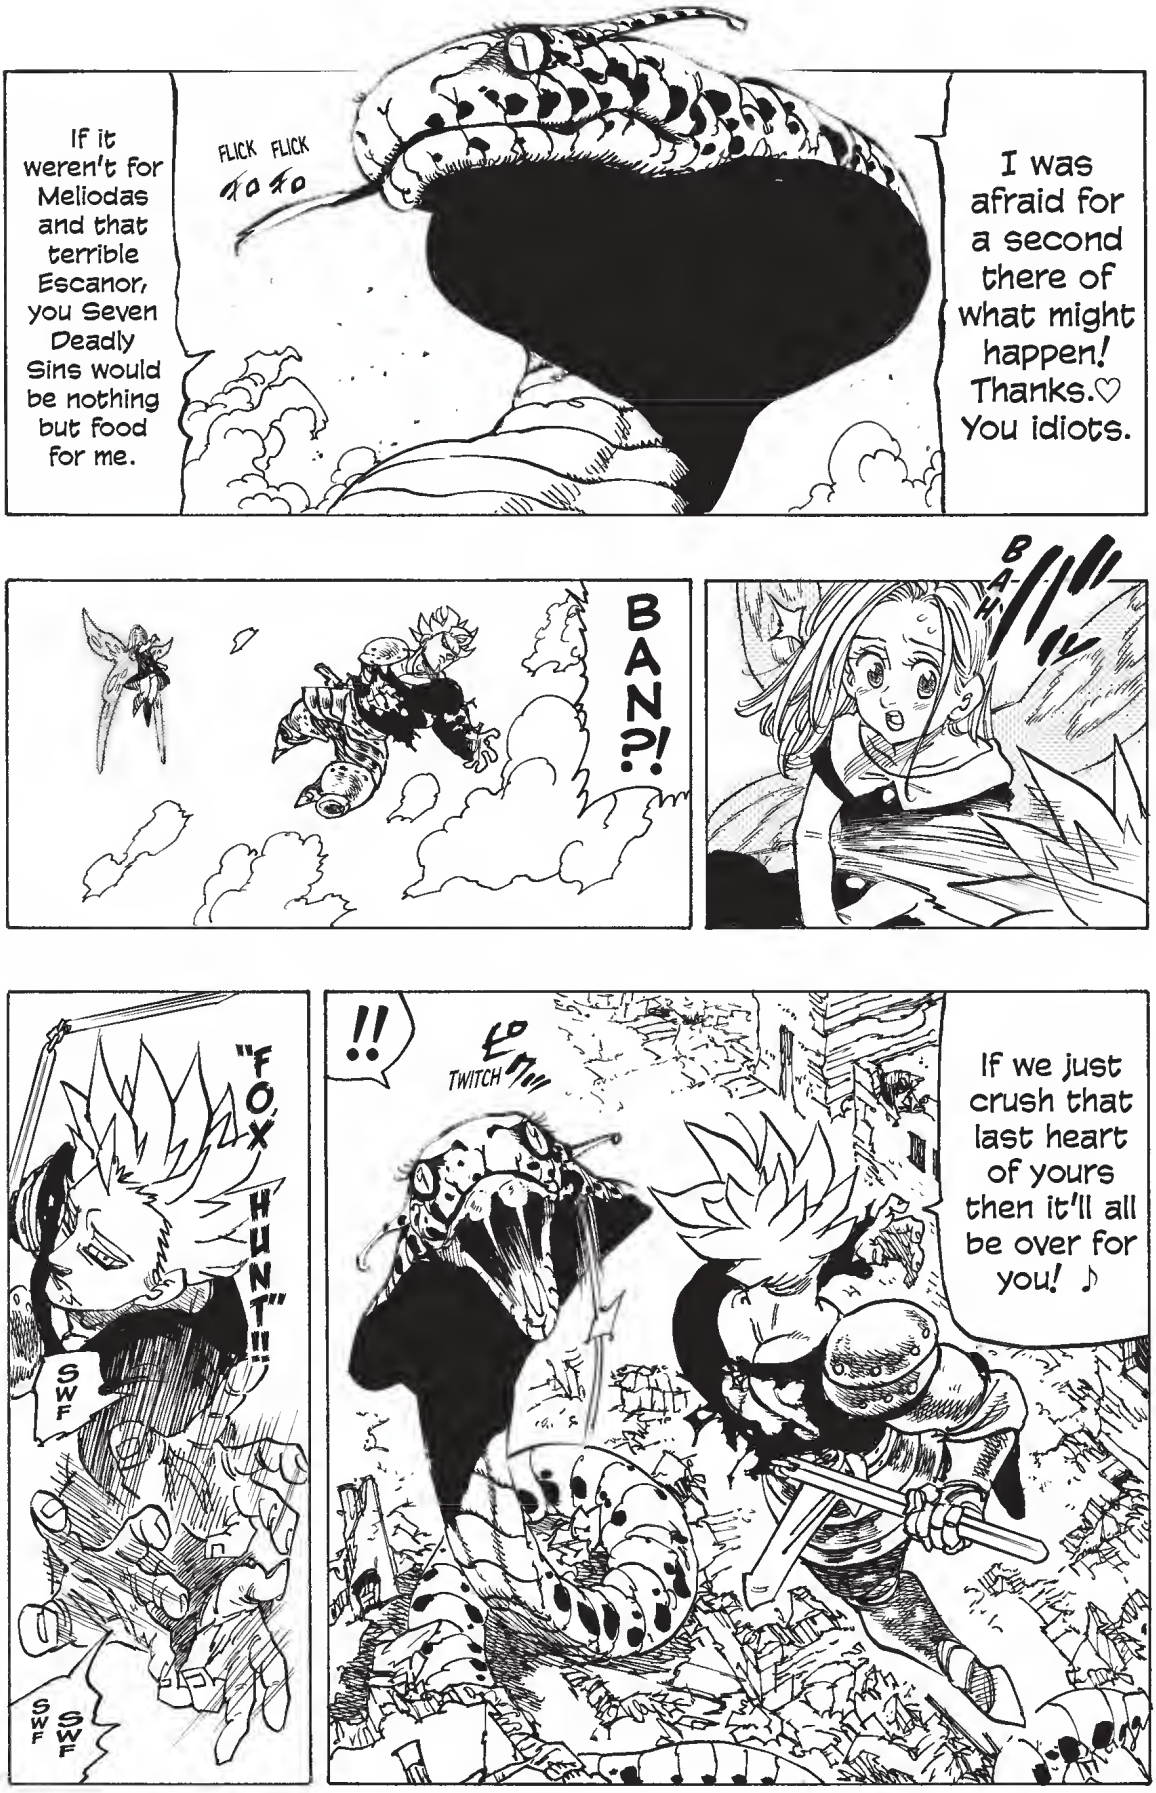
MERLIN!!



Being robbed of his emotions, it's a risk he shouldn't have run. That idiot.



This is probably the result of him taking a chance and releasing his demon magic to the limit in order to crush Melascula's magic.



If it weren't for Meliodas and that terrible Escanor, you Seven Deadly Sins would be nothing but food for me.

You assumed that if you just used your magic, this fight could turn out any way you like. You were conceited.

I heard about it from Melio-das.
